Anyone visiting, signing up and purchasing coins using your free affiliate account will earn you POINTS for you to qualify for entry into the prize giveaway and any purchases made by your direct or indirect affiliates will earn you commission (5% on direct and 2% on indirect affiliate purchases).

For the purpose of this TBC2 Coin competition, purchases made by individuals will count towards their own "commission amount" in the form of "Virtual commission" but they will not actually be eligible to receive commission on their own purchases.

Example: If a member purchases $10,000 worth of TBC2 Coins in the ICO, they will be compensated in both points (20,000 points) and "Virtual Commission" ($500 at 5%) to count towards their "total commission" for the prize draw, but they will NOT be eligible to actually receive that ($500) "virtual" commission on the purchase.

In an effort to ensure fairness, anyone making a purchase on the website should use their original referrals affiliate links, our affiliate system retains referrals information to automatically allocate the correct amount of commissions to an individual.

As per our terms and conditions for all affiliates, commission will not ACTUALLY be earned for "self purchases". Our system flags anyone making a purchase using their own affiliate link and those members may be banned from our giveaway prize draw and forfeit any commissions owed. DO NOT use your own affiliate link when making a purchase, use your original referrers affiliate link to ensure they earn the commission owed to them.

All commissions for the purpose of this competition will be counted either as 5% (directs) or 2% (indirect). Any "bonus" commissions (such as upfront incentives for hosting TBC2 Coin seminars) will not count towards the commission earned.

TBC2 Coin ICO is not an MLM, we offer simply, direct commission on sales to your direct affiliates/referrals and a second level for your directs direct affiliates. You will NOT receive commission for anyone past your "2nd level".
